

Field Day provides games, races and other athletic events for all students during a spring school day (usually during the last two weeks of school). The PE teacher organizes this event, which typically takes place in one of the local parks. Home & School provides a pizza party for lunch.