Catholic Schools Week

Thank you to all who made the 2012 Catholic Schools Week a huge success. We truly celebrated this year's theme of "Faith, Academics, and Service". Students and staff had a terrific time. Congratulations to Cherri Johnson for receiving her 10 year pin in appreciation of her service to Catholic schools. We thank each and every parent for the trust you've shown in St. Patrick's to give your child the best of "Faith, Academics and Service"!

No School

Please remember that there is no school at St. Patrick's on Friday, February 24. This is a conference comp day.

Conferences

Thank you to so many who came for conferences on Feb. 7 and 9. If you were unable to attend, you will be contacted to set up a time. It is important that we have 100% participation.

Weather Reminder

Please remember that if school starts late or dismisses early due to weather conditions, there is no child care program. There is no breakfast served on days we start late. You should receive a phone call to let you know of a late start, early dismissal or no school. You should also always double check for the information on television stations KCCI, WHO, and WOI. Our local radio station, KDLS, 1310 am will also announce the information.
