

BOX TOPS ELECTION UPDATE – 02.13.12

Advancing into Week Six of our Box Tops Election for the Horton Party, the parties are working hard to drum up support from both inside and outside their own precincts. Following are the current results with some major wins and losses from many candidates:

Remaining as the front runner in this race is Martin Luther King, Jr (K). King has maintained much support from within, with many thanks to Lilly Riley and Nate Lutterman for keeping this lead established. Also many thanks to Kaelan Davis, Kaylee Wuebker and their Most Reverent Campaign Advisor, Mrs. Kealhofer.

In an unanticipated and widely scrutinized move, Thomas Jefferson (4/5) has jumped from 7th place to 2nd place in this race. Jefferson graciously thanks Bree Martin and her resilient team consisting of Kato Dougan, Jasmyn Barck, Anna Ridnour, Trinity Summerson, Chase Archer and their benevolent and fearless advisor, Ms. Aldridge. Way to go Team Jefferson!

In third place in the polls this week is Mother Theresa (PS-AM), who was bumped from 2nd place by Jefferson. This will be a close match to watch, with little more than 300 votes separating them. Mother Theresa is grateful to Ms. Cherri, her sidekick Ms. Teresa and team supporter Rogan Dougan for assisting in maintaining position in the top half of the polls.

In fourth place, and with a gain of one place, is Mr. Abe Lincoln (1), who wishes to thank sole supporter Gannon Meis for his strong effort to keep his candidate in the polls. We are sure Gannon would appreciate some camaraderie from his teammates to keep this candidate in the race!

Unfortunately for the Irish, St. Patrick has dropped drastically in the polls from 3rd place to 5th place this week. There was slight movement however from sole supporter Riese Archer who we are sure would like to know where the rest of the Leprechauns are hiding...

Also dropping in the polls is George W. Bush, who went from 4th place to 6th place this week. We are unsure how this could happen as this was the only candidate to receive anonymous donations from the independent party (Parish)...however, Bush is grateful for those donations as well as for the support his campaign team provides, consisting of Khyler Carstarphen, Samuel Ridnour, Korbin Barck, Jayna Kenney, Ceanna Light, Brian Hernandez, Emily Al-Mohamed and their Stay The Course Advisor, Ms. Fergesen.

And finally, still trying to maintain campaign validity are:

7th Place: Gandolph the White (with support from Dane McCarty and Grant Eklund)

8th Place: Aslan (with solo support from Alex Thompson)

9th Place: St. Valentine (who appears heartbroken that the only support he received was from Ms. Cherri...hopefully those little cupids will start clipping, cutting and submitting!)

NOTE: This contest will continue through Friday, March 16th. The class that ends this contest in First Place will be designated as the Horton Party. The class that ends this contest in Second Place will be designated as the Eeyore Party. During the month of April, there will be special contests (which will include ALL the classes) to determine which class will receive the limo ride – Hortons or Eeyores. Good Luck!
